

ELH 250: Contemporary Hebrew Literature in Translation (in English)
(3 credits) Fall I and Spring I

- This course is an introduction to:
(1) Hebrew Literature in Translation
(2) the culture of Israel.
- The goal of this course is to familiarize students with an author, a genre or a theme and to explore the socio-cultural milieu in which it developed within a literary and cultural context.
- Various genres including biography, fiction, poetry, humor, and film will be explored.
- This class is taught in English. Knowledge of Hebrew is not required.

