

Democracy & Social Media in the Age of Disinformation

Raquel Reichard discusses the *HER*story of how social media has grown to influence democracy.

Raquel is well known for her contributions to Latina Magazine and for her progressive thinking in the fields of Latinx relations, Latina feminism, and justice in the modern era.

Date: Monday,
March 27th 2017

Time: 2 – 4 PM

Place: E-242

Join the panel discussion as we review what social media means for politics and how the dependence on social media for information could be damaging to democracy.

Keep the conversation going:
#HERstoryofdemocracy

DARE TO DO MORE

Sponsored by
Office of Campus Life and The Women's Center