

Computer Repair 1: Getting Started

Planning and building your own PC involves research, Specifications play an important role in building and repairing a computer successfully.

1. External Components needed to make up the computer system.

a. Input Devices

- i. Keyboard
- ii. Mouse
- iii. Microphone
- iv. Touch pad
- v. Scanner

b. Output Devices

- i. Monitor
- ii. Printer
- iii. Speakers
- iv. Head Phones
- v. Projector

c. Computer Case

i. Tower

1. AT
2. ATX

ii. Desktop

1. Upright
2. Flat

The links below will lead to specific information about computer components, planning, software, and assembly.

- Home
- Getting Started (This page)
 - Finding a Place to Work
 - Planning your PC
 - Tools
 - Anti-Static Precautions

- Components
 - The Computer Case
 - The Motherboard
 - The Processor
 - Storage Devices
 - Hard Drives
 - Other Storage Devices
 - Cables and Connectors
 - IDE and Floppy Drive Cables
 - SATA and SCSI Cables
 - Power and Panel Cables and Connectors
 - Memory
 - Expansion Cards
 - Video Cards
 - Sound Cards
 - Network Cards and Modems
- Software: Operating System and Applications
- Assembling your New Computer
 - Getting Ready
 - Installing the Motherboard
 - Installing the Processor
 - Installing the CPU Cooler
 - Installing RAM
 - Installing Expansion Cards
 - Installing the Hard Drives
 - Installing Auxiliary Drives
 - Installing the Panel Connectors
 - Firing It Up