

Jean Buckley-Lockhart is a Licensed Mental Health Counselor. She earned a Masters of Education in Personal Counseling with a concentration on cross-college counseling and a Masters in Psychology from, Teachers College, Columbia University. She also earned a BA in Psychology from William Smith College. Ms. Buckley-Lockhart has earned a certificate in drug and alcohol counseling. For many years, she has worked closely with staff and students in the Allied Health department and is very familiar with issues and pressure that affect Allied Health students. Ms. Buckley-Lockhart also has a background with ADD/ADHD issues; Spectrum issues and Cognitive Behavioral treatment options.