

Marissa Tolero earned her Master's of Arts degree in Mental Health Counseling from the City College of New York. She completed her Bachelor of Art's degree in Psychology and Social Behavior at the University of California, Irvine. She was a Mental Health Counseling Intern from 2014 to 2015 in the Health Center at LaGuardia Community College. She has interned as a Clinical Research Assistant with the Neuropsychiatric Research Center of Orange County, working with schizophrenic patients participating in pharmaceutical studies. She has also interned as a Behavior Technician with the Center for Behavioral Sciences, INC. where she worked with children diagnosed with Autism Spectrum Disorder. She has worked as a Skill Development Therapist with adults diagnosed with developmental and intellectual disorders. In addition to working as an Intake Coordinator for the Wellness Center, Marissa volunteers with America Needs You- New Jersey as a Mentor Coach for first generation, low-income college students. She is a Certified Domestic Violence Counselor with the state of California.