

LaGuardia Community College

2016 Student Senator Elections – Candidate Profile

Ariel Jones

How did you become interested in running for College Senate?

How I became interested running for College Senator is because I would like to make LaGuardia Community College a much better school than it already is, being a college senator for this college would be an absolute honor if I am not selected that is absolutely fine but what I bring to the table is my absolute respect and loyalty I do what is right and won't ever change.

What are some basic principles that would guide your leadership as a member of the College Senate?

Using my actions instead of my words, always setting examples, taking responsibility for making decisions and meeting the deadlines of things and most importantly, chasing vision more than money. Those five things and much more are mostly needed to be a leader, because if you don't do those things it makes you a leader and not a follower. Leaders are capable of anything that comes.

Why should a student vote for you to represent them?

Not forcing my students to vote for me, but I honestly believe they should because when it comes to professional such as college, work etc. I set my deadlines, decisions and my goals I do not let anyone get in my way of succeeding and that is the truth, I do what is right not only for myself but for my college, honestly it is difficult every step you go in life but as long as you succeed and get what is rightly done that all that matters. As a senator, I will do whatever I can to make sure our students graduate on time.
