ASL-English Interpretation Program

Consecutive Interpreting for Deaf Interpreters
Facilitated by
Christopher Tester

Explore the theories, process models and practice of consecutive interpreting. Gain experience in discourse styles through observation and role-play activities. You will also analyze your decision-making process to enhance your skills as a Deaf interpreter.*

* Workshop Presented in ASL – Sponsored by Mill Neck Interpreting Service

Friday May 6, 2016  5:30pm — 9:00pm
Saturday May 7, 2016  9:30am — 5:00pm
A16INT927A  $119
LaGuardia Community College,  Room: C-244

Christopher Tester, CDI

♦ Works in private practice in New York City as an American and British Sign Language interpreter, consultant, educator and trainer; works part time as an interpreter supervisor for Mill Neck Interpreter Service, NY
♦ Specializes in workshop and seminar facilitation on topics including disability rights and laws, deaf and hard-of-hearing awareness, and ASL and interpreting ♦ Volunteers consulting services to local coalitions that provide advocacy for the Deaf and Hard-of-Hearing communities in New York City’s legal system
♦ Has eight years experience as a manager/trainer at Sorenson Communications and as a Special Projects Coordinator and Investigator at the New Jersey Division on Civil Rights
♦ Served as President of the New York City Metro chapter of the Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf
♦ Currently pursuing a Masters Degree through European Masters in Sign Language Interpreting at Heriot Watt University, Scotland; received his Professional Certificate from the ASL-English Interpretation Program at LaGuardia Community College

To register contact Vanessa Watson at (718) 482-5313, email vwatson@lagcc.cuny.edu

Or

Register online at www.laguardia.edu/ace/register