The New York Chinese Chorus, Qi Shu Fang Peking Opera Company and Dr. Chou Hsing-Lih

SPECIAL PERFORMANCE

Celebrate Asian Heritage Month with a magnificent afternoon of music, song, mime, glorious costumes, martial arts and acrobatics.

The New York Chinese Chorus performs a repertoire that includes Chinese folk songs, classic tunes and popular numbers from the 1930s to 1960s. The Chorus will be conducted by Professor Guojun Wu, a distinguished graduate and long-time faculty member of the Shanghai Conservatory. The accompanist will be 18-year old American-born piano prodigy, Eric Liu.

Dr. Chou Hsing-Lih is one of the original pioneering composers of Campus Folk Songs, revolutionary music in a new style combining Taiwanese folk and country melodies. Dr. Chou is recognized as a leading Taiwanese dialect and Chinese folk singer in America and has performed in many prestigious halls and festivals.

The Qi Shu Fang Peking Opera Company performs a scene from The Monkey King and the Princess Iron Fan — an action packed opera adapted from one of China’s four celebrated epic tales, written by Wu Chengen, during the Tang Dynasty (618-907). The opera will be performed in Chinese and narrated in English.

Special thanks to Tai Wang, President of the New York Chinese Chorus and Honorary Director of the LaGuardia Foundation board.

Wednesday, May 20, 2015
2:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.
Mainstage Theater

FREE ADMISSION
Seating is limited, please RSVP at rsvp-lpac@lagcc.cuny.edu.

LaGuardia Community College
31-10 Thomson Avenue
Long Island City, NY 11101

www.lagcc.cuny.edu/Home/Asian-Heritage-Celebration/