Assignment Instructions: Roll the dice a total of six times. Each number you roll will correspond to an identity. After six rolls you should have a total of six identities – one from each left-hand-side category. Use this new identity to answer the following questions creatively in one page.

1. How would this person (with the identity you rolled) experience New York City?
2. Where would they live? Would they use public transit? Where might they work?
3. Do you think this person has a difficult or easy life in the city?
4. How does this person's life compare to yours? Do you have a similar or different urban life? Why & How?
