

RESEARCH REVIEW COMPETITION

RULES FOR ENTRY

The Research Review Competition is jointly sponsored by the Library and Faculty Council. Prizes for excellence in writing a research paper will be presented to winners in September. All participants will receive a Certificate of Participation. Papers will be judged by a panel of faculty members. All of the decisions of the Research Review Panel are final.

I. RESEARCH PAPER DEFINED:

For the purpose of this competition, the research paper is defined as an expository paper on a single subject. The writer must demonstrate skillful integration of original ideas with documented facts and opinions of others.

II. ELIGIBILITY AND NOMINATION PROCEDURES:

- A. Research papers that receive a grade of "A" in a LaGuardia course during the current academic year may be nominated either by the student author or by the instructor who graded the paper.
- B. No entry will be considered unless it is accompanied by the attached application form and meets all of the basic requirements outlined for the competition.
- C. Research papers with one student author are eligible for the competition. Papers written by more than one author or group projects are not eligible.
- D. Students may submit more than one paper. Each paper must include an application form and appropriate course information.

III. BASIC REQUIREMENTS OF THE RESEARCH PAPER:

- A. All entries must demonstrate the student's knowledge of essay structure (i.e., introduction, body and conclusion), correct grammar, spelling and punctuation, as well as a mature vocabulary and style.
- B. All entries must include the correct in-text citations, footnotes or endnotes. A minimum of three sources in the bibliography must be annotated. If the original paper does not include an annotated bibliography, it must be added for the competition. The annotations should demonstrate the student's ability to locate and critically evaluate a variety of information sources.

IV. SUBMIT ALL ENTRIES TO THE RESEARCH REVIEW PANEL IN THE LIBRARY: BY July 8, 2021 ROOM E-101 AT THE REFERENCE DESK
