

Stacey Chan is a native New Yorker and has been working with college students for the past six years. She is a Licensed Mental Health Counselor, with an M.A. in Counseling from Nyack College and B.A. in Economics from Trinity College. Stacey enjoys connecting with students and believes that we all need safe places for growth and healing. She values each student as a unique individual who has the capacity to grow and heal when given the right support. Her motto is "Counseling is for everyone!" and believes that anyone can benefit!
