PARTNERS FOR JUSTICE.

To learn more about the program visit www.laguardia.edu/criminaljustice or contact Jennifer Wynn, Assistant Professor and Criminal Justice Program Coordinator: jwynn@lagcc.cuny.edu

Career Options

With an A.S. in Criminal Justice from LaGuardia, you can pursue employment with the following agencies that require 60 credits or less:

- New York City police officer: 60 credits
- New York City correction officer: 39 credits
- New York City firefighter: 15 credits

Jobs that students could qualify for with an A.S. Degree:
- Private Security
- Police Officer
- Private Investigator
- Coast Guard (enlisted)
- Corrections Officer
- Deputy Sheriff

With both the LaGuardia A.S. and the John Jay B.A., you can:

- Pursue employment with the FBI, New York City Department of Probation, Drug Enforcement Agency, New York State Division of Parole, just to name a few.
- Pursue an M.A. or Ph.D. program in forensic psychology, criminal justice or forensic science.
- Pursue a law degree.

Jobs that students could qualify for with a B.A. Degree:
- ATF Agent
- U.S. Marshal
- Criminologist
- Customs Agent
- INS Agent
- Probation Officer
- Parole Officer
- Secret Service

START AT LAGUARDIA...

...FINISH AT JOHN JAY.
A Unique Path to an Exciting Career

LaGuardia’s new Criminal Justice program will prepare you for many different careers in the exciting field of criminal justice. This dual-admission program is part of the CUNY Justice Academy linking two- and four-year colleges that provide academic pathways from associate degree study to the completion of a bachelor’s degree at John Jay.

The Choice is Yours

Whether you decide on a two- or four-year program, your degree will open the door to a wide variety of career opportunities with strong employment prospects in a dynamic field. You will be qualified for many entry-level opportunities in the field of criminal justice.

Diverse Job Opportunities

Employment prospects for criminal justice positions in New York City are growing at a faster than average rate. Opportunities exist in law enforcement, corrections, parole, probation, social work, forensics, firefighting, juvenile justice, and court administration, among many others.

A Supportive Learning Environment

At LaGuardia, you will receive a quality education you can afford. Our flexible evening and weekend class schedule, on-campus childcare, tutoring, veterans programs, services for immigrants, and support for students with disabilities will help you succeed academically, personally and professionally.