This notification flow chart is to be followed only when an individual becomes aware of another member of the College community having an infectious disease. If you have symptoms of an infectious disease, contact the health center immediately and wait for further instructions.
LAGCC Children’s Infectious Diseases Notification Protocol Flow Chart

- This notification flow chart is to be followed only when an individual becomes aware of another member of the College community having an infectious disease.
- If you have symptoms of an infectious disease, contact the health center immediately and wait for further instructions.

Legend

- Solid Line = Primary Contact/Notification Procedure
- Dotted Line = Secondary or After Hours Contact/Notification Procedure
- ECLC = Early Childhood Learning Center
- NYC DOH = New York City Department of Health and Mental Hygiene
- EMT = Emergency Medical Technicians