

DARE TO DO MORE

Dear LaGuardia faculty and staff—

Join me and campus leaders to hear updates on important college developments and for a discussion about opportunities and challenges at the 2022 Spring Opening Sessions event on Thursday, March 3 at 9:30 a.m.

Limited in-person seating is available in the Little Theater; please RSVP here. Live streaming will be broadcast on YouTube; stay tuned for that link next week.

Vaccination Requirements for Faculty, Instructional Staff and ECPs: Earlier this week, Chancellor Matos Rodríguez announced a deadline of April 1, 2022 for full- and part-time faculty, non-teaching instructional staff (which includes, among others, NTAs, CLTs and those in the HEO series) and ECPs to be fully vaccinated against COVID-19 and to upload proof of vaccination into CUNYFirst. Instructions on how to upload proof are available here. Details are forthcoming regarding how to request medical or religious exemptions. If you have not yet uploaded your proof of vaccination, please do so.

Preparing for the Spring Term: As March draws nearer and we look forward to safely welcoming an increased number of students, faculty and staff to campus, I want to provide a reminder as to where key information can be found:

- LaGuardia Communications
- CUNY Communications
- Mask Mandate
- Vaccination Verification Instructions for Students, Faculty and Staff, RF Employees and Visitors
- Reporting a Positive Covid Test
- CUNY Testing Sites and FAQ (includes Random Testing information)
- CUNY Covid Safety Tracker

Above and Beyond Recognition: Many thanks to the Early Childhood Learning Center team, led by Sonya Evariste. In preparation for the spring term, and to ensure student-parents have access to childcare, ECLC is ready to welcome infant, toddler, and Pre-K children back to campus. This not only provides the children with a safe and welcoming experience but permits our student-parents to attend school knowing that their little ones are close by and well cared for. Thank you ECLC team!

Best wishes,

Kenneth Adams
President