

Humanities Attendance Policy:

Attendance and participation in class is a requirement and will be considered in the evaluation of student performance. Instructors keep an official record of student attendance. In-person class meetings require students to be present in the classroom, online synchronous meetings require students be present in the real-time online meeting, and asynchronous classes require students to submit an assignment or discussion response by a given deadline.

The maximum number of unexcused absences is limited to 15% of the number of class hours. Absences are counted from the first day of class even if they are a result of late registration or change of program.
