

Library Department

The Library Department has adopted the following policy:

Class attendance and participation play a crucial role in the learning process and directly impact students' overall academic achievement. Therefore, students are expected to attend and participate in all class sessions regardless of modality. Your class participation grade will be credited based on participation in class discussions and activities every week.